

The public airways should be operated to serve the public, primarily. Private business (corporations, etc.) exist to serve the people, i. e., the public. Please consider very seriously the vote to consolidate media companies.